THE HIGHNESS CLUB

The Highness Club

Introducing Highness C. Tokings — our signature mascot and the original character from which every member is created. Each new Toker is a unique customization of Highness, featuring different traits, styles, and personalities while remaining part of the same budding community. Together, they form a collection that grows one unique Toker at a time, celebrating individuality, creativity, and community.

A Toker of fine reputation
Once grew tired of verification.
So to end all his pain,
He'd just verify on-chain—
Creating the High-Dentification.

Tokings, Highness C.

Every Toker is one of a kind. Your character isn't just artwork—it's your identity. It represents your lounge, forms the base design of your HighD membership card, appears at events, stars in community games, unlocks future experiences, and grows alongside the ecosystem. Whether you choose a standard HighD membership or an NFT membership, your Toker becomes a recognizable face in an ever-expanding community where no two personalities are ever baked the same.

The Highness Club DAO

The Highness Club DAO (Decentralized Autonomous Organization) serves as the governing body of the Toker ecosystem. Membership is represented by DAO NFTs, with each NFT carrying voting rights similar to shares in a company. Together, members help shape the community through proposals, governance, and strategic decision-making. These NFTs are not for sale and are shown for illustrative purposes only. The Cannabasics is a creatively illustrated educational handbook narrated by Highness C. Tokings. Designed as coffee-table reading material, its goal is to simplify cannabis culture and science through engaging storytelling, bite-sized educational content, and custom illustrations. Rather than relying on stock photography, every background image is created from photographs captured during an indoor Sticker Slap competition, transforming authentic street art into a distinctive visual identity that reflects the creativity and culture of the cannabis community.

CANNABASICS

What are the Cannabasics?

Too many souls wander in the haze, lost to the mysteries of The Sacred Herb, their minds clouded by ignorance—or NPC lies.

So, in the name of crafting cannabis culture, we've created

*The Cannabasics -
A Cure for Cannabis Confusion*

Whether you're a veteran Toker or new to the scene, and seeking your crew, Highness is here to guide you through.

CANNABASICS

Who is Highness C. Tokings?

Ever felt that strange—yet comforting—clarity mid-toke?

When chaos and creativity collide, and suddenly your half-baked idea feels like divine download?

That wasn't just the strain talking, and you weren't just high — you were visited by Highness.

Crowned in curiosity and cloaked in pure imagination, Highness is more than a mascot—he's the conscious-cannabis collective made manifest.

CANNABASICS

The Sticker Slap Story

Before we wrap this scroll of smoke and science, a sneaky secret: Every background you've seen here — every shape and every shade — comes straight from our Indoor Sticker Slap Competition.

Turns out, enlightenment sticks (literally), proving that the best art doesn't always hang in galleries —sometimes it lingers on lamp posts, revels in the rain, and parks in peaceful protest, smiling from the sidelines as the world rushes by.

61

CANNABASICS

The Sticker Slap Story

And in this regularly racing world, there's something to be said for those who slow down to spot the small things, stop to stare at subtleties, and stand still just long enough to seek the perfect space to leave their trace.

From alley poles to bathroom mirrors, from venue doors to street signs, sticker slapping happens between destinations and distractions. A split-second decision to slap, snap, and share becomes proof of presence —a signal of who we are, where we've been, and what we've seen.

CANNABASICS

The Sticker Slap Story

Sticker slapping is more than the permissionless act of peeling, placing, and pressing a symbol —it's mindfulness in motion.

For us, it's an evolving series of statements and moments where walls turn into waypoints and stickers tell stories of the Toke Trails — a route of resistance against anyone NPC (Non-Pro-Cannabis).

Visit our socials to join our competitions, and make your mark on the next stretch of the Toke Trail.

To be blunt:

Cannabis is more than smoke and sensation — it's a craft, a culture, and a code of conduct.

Learning its lore, respecting its roots, and practising its principles turns Toker's into torchbearers against the darkness of NPC ignorance.

So, to combat confusion, we've rolled out

The Cannabasics:

The Toker's guide to Cannabis clarity, culture, and conscious consumption.

Read further, and become ...

The next round of Sticker Slaps will provide the background imagery for CryptoBasics.

Sticker packs will be distributed to participating lounges, giving members the opportunity to win prizes while having their sticker slaps featured in future educational publications.
